Blues concert to be at Center

WENATCHEE — Tickets are still available for the Lloyd Jones Struggle/Jude Bowerman Blues Trip concert to be held at 8 p.m. June 6 at the Wenatchee Center, said promoter Robert Sandidge of R.L.S. Entertainment Enterprises.

Tickets are $12 in advance or $15 the day of the show. Ticket outlets are Bellmore's Owl Drug Co., Sun Dog Bead Co., The Rock 106.7, Avalon Music and Killer Kolor, all in Wenatchee; The Pro Shop of the Columbia, The Tanning Co., East Wenatchee; and The Music Store, Chelan. Sandidge said special delivery is available for bulk purchases. For more information, call 662-MUSC (6872).

A light show by Motorbark Sound and Lighting, Seattle, will add to the atmosphere, Sandidge said. A speaker system and some of the lighting will be situated over the crowd.

Sandidge said Motorbark works large rock 'n' roll shows and handles most of the blues festivals in the Northwest.

The doors will open at 7 p.m. Audience members must be 21 or older.
